EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW For Your CIA Boot Camp

NEW YORK | CALIFORNIA | TEXAS | ciafoodies.com

Welcome to The Culinary Institute of America!

The CIA is here to bring the joys of the kitchen to you. Our welcoming and knowledgeable chef instructors offer a variety of classes for all skill levels, from beginners to enthusiastic home cooks.

Founded in 1946, the CIA is recognized as the world's premier culinary college dedicated to excellence. Our facilities are state-of-the-art and our expert faculty hail from around the globe. Culinary education is our passion. So, it was a natural step to bring our expertise to food enthusiasts—like you.

Step into the same kitchens where renowned CIA alumni like Amanda Freitag, Michael Symon, Cat Cora, Grant Achatz, and Enrique Olvera first honed their skills from how to hold a knife, to laminating the perfect croissant, to the art of building and balancing flavor.

Now that you're registered for your CIA Boot Camp, what's next? This guide has the info you need to get the most out of your time at the world's premier culinary college.

Plan Your Trip

Confirmation

You will receive an email about two weeks before your program with check-in details: where to park, where to check-in, what to wear, and more things to do at each campus.

Arrival to Campus

Parking and check-in spots are marked clearly for each campus on the maps on the following pages. You will receive an email about two weeks prior to your class with specific arrival information and itinerary for your class.

Local Accommodations

Many hotels offer a discount to CIA class attendees. Be sure to inquire when making your reservation. View our preferred hotel partners: ciafoodies.com/where-to-stay

Dining

During each day of your Boot Camp, you'll enjoy the food you cook for lunch. On one evening, you'll join your fellow Boot Campers at one of our on-campus restaurants for a meal prepared and served by CIA students in a live classroom. Boot Campers at The CIA at Copia will enjoy a meal at The Grove, a collaboration between CIA alumni, students, and industry professionals. On other evenings, you are welcome to explore local restaurants. Each location also has a variety of on-campus dining options:

Things to Know

Dress Code

To foster a professional and safe environment, the CIA has adopted the following uniform for Boot Camps.

We Will Provide You With

- CIA Chef's Jacket (one for two- or three-day Boot Camps, two for four- or five-day Boot Camps)
- Apron
- Side towel
- Toque
- Beard covers (as necessary)

You Will Need to Bring

- Loose-fitting pants to protect against spills.
No sweat pants, jeans, or yoga pants, please.
- Closed-toe shoes with an antislip sole. Skid proof or kitchen shoes can be purchased online. No sandals or open-toed shoes.

Jewelry and Hair

For safety and sanitation reasons, jewelry is not permitted except for one plain ring and one watch. Hair should be tied back, neatly maintained, and under control at all times.

Communication Devices

- Cell phones are allowed to be used for taking photos or videos during class.
- After using your phone in the kitchen, please wash your hands before returning to work.
- All phones should be set to vibrate mode and all calls should be handled outside of the classroom or kitchen.
- For privacy reasons, please do not photograph CIA students anywhere on campus.

Photography

- Periodically, photographers will be present in classes to take photos that may be used in CIA marketing materials and social media.
- As a condition of your enrollment, you grant The Culinary Institute of America the right to reproduce, use, exhibit, display, broadcast, distribute, and create derivative works of college-related photos or videos that include your image for use in promoting, publicizing, and explaining the college and its activities.
- If you don't want your image used by the CIA in this way, please inform Customer Service ahead of time or upon your arrival to campus.

Smoking

- Health and fire safety laws—as well as campus regulations—prohibit smoking in all indoor areas, outdoor areas not specifically designated for smoking, and within 75 feet of all building entrances.
- Smoking is permitted in designated outdoor smoking areas only. These locations will be clearly marked.
- Please use ash urns to dispose of cigarette butts to help keep our campuses clean.

Cancellation Policy

Single-Day Class: Registration is non-refundable. If cancelling more than seven (7) days prior to class date, transfer is available to another class of equal value within the following three (3) months.

Boot Camp: Cancellations at least 60 days before class start date—full refund available. Cancellations more than 30 days before start date—50% refund available. Cancellations withing 30 days of start date are not eligible for refunds.

The CIA may occasionally cancel a class that has not met the minimum enrollment requirement. These classes will be cancelled at least 21 days before the start date, and you will be notified by phone and email. Additionally, if a class is cancelled by the CIA for any reason, you will receive a full refund to your original payment method. The CIA is not responsible for travel costs associated with the change.
